President's Message

January kicked off with the ski and sports equipment swap. The back of the meeting room was packed with skis, boots, clothing and even a bicycle. There were lots of smiles at the end of the night. The next weekend, Ann took us on a hike to the Cross in Ventura. We had a beautiful day for the hike and timed it perfectly since it rained the day before and the day after. Mid-month, Roz took a group bowling in Camarillo. We set a record for the lowest score for a 3 game series and also a record for the most fun you can have in a bowling alley in 2 hours. Last weekend, Mark took us to Mammoth and it turned out to be a snowy blizzard. It snowed over 6 feet during the weekend. Friday it snowed and we skied chair 1 then over to the Canyon Lodge. Saturday the lifts at the Main lodge were closed. Then, they told us the BIG storm was coming in Saturday night. Mark made the decision to load up the bus after dinner Saturday night and we headed home. Caltrans closed 395 Sunday morning and there are stories of folks being stuck in Mammoth till Tuesday. Thanks to Mark for making the decision to leave Saturday night and get us home early Sunday morning.

I am writing this headed to Sun Valley Idaho for a week of skiing. Thanks to Louise for planning the trip and looking out for all of us for the next week.

Carolyn is taking sign-ups for an opportunity to participate in the escape room in mid February. This promises to be a fun event where folks work together as a team to solve clues to escape from the room. Contact Carolyn for more information and sign-up.

Mammoth 3 day ski trips are full. If you are interested in being added to the wait list for Mammoth please contact Mark Glasmeier. Aspen/Snowmass week long trips are also full. If you have an interest in being added to our wait list please contact Chuck to be added. We always have cancellations so if you are interested add your name to the wait list.

The Dubai - Abu Dhabi travel trip sign-ups continue. This trip is all about ADVENTURE, and your opportunity to visit a part of the world that is off our beaten path. The trip includes round trip airfare, tips, 9 meals, accommodations at the 5-Star Hyatt Regency Dubai & the highly ranked Southern Sun in Abu Dhabi and trip insurance for $2,340 per person. The Portugal - Spain trip is sold out. If you would like to be added to our wait list please contact Lou.

We are starting to plan the 2018 travel trips. Please see the survey on page 9. There will be an email from survey monkey asking where you would like to travel next year. This feedback is very helpful in deciding where we will be going next year.

The fun doesn't start till you sign-up and show up. I look forward to seeing you at one of these amazing events.

HELPFUL HINTS

SEARCH EVERYWHERE. Sounds pretty basic, but you may be surprised by how often you overlook obvious clues. Searching everywhere means EVERYWHERE. And that includes, but is not limited to:

- In (and under) teapots, boxes, suitcases, etc.
- Inside books and book covers
- Underneath tables and tablecloths
- Behind (and sometimes in) paintings
- Under carpets, rugs, lamps, doilies, chess pieces, candle holders, and any other bric-à-brac.

Basically, take everything in the room, turn it upside down, inside out and sideways. Then do it again just to be sure.

THE ROOMS ARE ROOMS, NOT CLOSETS. The rooms are normal sized rooms, there will be plenty of room to move around, so don't worry about being squeezed. Also, it is possible that you may get yourselves out of one room and find yourself in another room that you also need to escape. I've been in a 4-room escape. So be quick about it—you don't know what's behind the next door.

KEEP TRACK OF TIME. There's a large clock on the wall counting down the 60 minutes. The worst thing you can do is rush through the clues, miss something, and get stuck because of that. Stay calm and take your time. Just do so efficiently. (Oh, and if you're claustrophobic, this experience is not for you.)

WHO'S ON MY TEAM? Lovers, spouses, partners, significant others, fiancés, etc. may not be your best bet in this stressful environment, that is, unless you want to provide some additional entertainment for your other team members! Something to think about when signing up. There are 5 different rooms, I'm sure you two can be apart for an hour!

COMMUNICATE. You are not in the room alone. Your team members are your BEST chance of escaping the room within the time limit. One person may be great at puzzles, another at observation, one at math, another at putting the clues together, so know your strengths. All the (real) clues are connected in some way. There are 6-8 of you, and all of you are (hopefully) finding different clues. If you don't talk to each other, or share what you've found, or put them together, your quest will be hopeless.

Talk out the problem, together. Tell them what you think, and listen to what your team members think. Eight heads ARE better than one—no one can get out of this alone!

NOTHING IS WHAT IT SEEMS TO BE. Take a second look at everything, it may just fit into a part of a puzzle here or a puzzle there, or might be the key to the pattern over there. Think outside the box and go for it. Don't give up.

ESCAPE THIS ROOM

GO TO THE BATHROOM! ...before getting locked inside, of course. Seriously, this seems obvious, but you'd be surprised at 1) how many times your hosts will suggest you do so, 2) how many people forget to do so, and 3) how little you think about it once that door is locked...that is until you have to go.

KEEP TRACK OF STUFF. If you have to write something down to remember the clue, do so. If you picked something up from one part of the room, keep track of that too. You'll have to put stuff together to solve the puzzles, or unlock other clues, but don't forget whence it came. That will (probably) be important.

NO CELL PHONES, NO CAMERAS—INTERNET AND COMMUNICATION FREE FOR ONE HOUR.

EVERYTHING IS THERE FOR A REASON!

If you decipher a clue with "a picture of a wristwatch + 42," and then you find a TV hidden behind a painting, and you've already found a mysterious electrical cord, chances are you are on to something. Light switches, electrical devices, keys, numbers, sequences, and other "odd" finds ARE important. Find out why. Don't let any one talk you out of your ideas, or convince you that the clues are meaningless. Pursue them. There's something greatly satisfying when 'watching channel 42 on that TV and it leads to another clue.

HAVE FUN!

Take this chance to use your brain, your friends' brains, and to have fun. This will be one of the shortest hours of your life!

Solstice Canyon Hike

Saturday, February 25

Solstice Canyon is a place where one can experience nature. Native Chumash Settlers first used the canyon for food, water and shelter. Homesteader Henry Keller built a stone house in this Malibu Canyon in 1903. The trail leads to the Roberts house, which was designed in 1952 by renowned African American architect Paul Williams, and was destroyed by a fire. An arched stone courtyard garden terrace, ruins and exotic tropical plants still remain. Near the ruins, a waterfall, cascades 30 feet over sandstone rocks. The trail meanders through a lush canyon with a sweeping vista. The hike is ~3-4 miles roundtrip with an elevation gain of ~775 feet.

Meet promptly at 8:00 am at the Kanan Rd carpool lot. Bring hiking shoes, plenty of water, munchies, hat and sunscreen. Bring $$ for a fresh seafood lunch afterwards.

Directions: Ventura Freeway (101) to Kanan Rd exit.
Turn into the carpool lot across from Burger King.

How To Survive Stranded in the Wilderness

(Excerpts from Reader's Digest by Beth Dreher, June 2016)

- Find Water You can last only about four days without water. To ward off dehydration, search for animals, birds (especially songbirds), insects (especially honeybees), and green vegetation, all of which can indicate that water is nearby. Rock crevices may also hold small caches of rainwater.
- Find food: You can survive up to three weeks without food, but a growling stomach will set in much sooner. These four items are always edible: grass, cattails, acorns, and pine needles. A simple rhyme can help you identify safe-to-eat berries: "White and yellow, kill a fellow. Purple and blue, good for you."
- Brave an animal ambush: We've all read about bear and shark attacks. But what about an aggressive wolf or deer? Regardless of species, stand your ground. Running will trigger the animal's chase mentality, and unless you're trying to avoid a snake, you won't be able to run fast enough.
- Signal a rescuer: The subjects of many of "Beth's stories are able to attract the attention of rescuers using a reflection or a signal fire or by making a lot of noise. To increase your chances of being discovered, go to an open area on a hilltop, then use a mirror, CD, belt buckle, or water bottle to reflect light toward the pilot of an airplane or a helicopter overhead. To create white smoke, which is easy for rescuers to see, add green vegetation to your fire.
- Splint a broken bone: The people in the stories I read, climb backcountry cliffs, survive plane crashes, fall thousands of feet without a parachute and often break bones. One key to these folks' survival? A splint, which can help reduce pain, prevent further damage, and allow you to move to a safer place. Basic rule of splinting: If you break a bone, immobilize the joints above and below it. Either way, first pad the injury with something soft like a shirt or socks: next, lay out something hard, like a tent pole or a sturdy stick, that extends past either side of the injury. Finally tie it all in place with duct tape, strips of clothing, or a padded rope from your camping gear. Don't tie it so tightly that you lose circulation. One injury's enough.

Conejo Ski & Sports Club supports the Unreckables Ski Club through the Ralph's rewards Community Contribution Program. It's very simple to become part of this very worthwhile program. On the following page is a flyer with a bar code on it. Print that flyer, take it to any Ralph's Grocery Store along with your Ralph's rewards card. The cashier will scan your card and the bar code on the flyer. On your grocery receipt you will see "Unrecables." That's all you do. Ralph's will donate to the Unrecables each time you make a purchase using your card.

Who are "The Unrecables"

We are a non-profit, volunteer-based organization, serving the recreational needs of people with disabilities. We promote adaptive sports, and encourage people with disabilities to participate in sports, recreational, and social activities in their communities.

Vision

It is the vision of The Unrecables to be a recognized leader in a movement through which people with disabilities are accepted and respected at the same level as able-bodied people.

To have a great and significant impact on each person with a disability and reach out to the disabled community and provide inspiration, awareness and mentoring.

It is estimated that there are more than 35 million Americans living with a physical disability. Equipment that allows these individuals to engage in active lifestyles is very expensive – in fact, for many, it's cost-prohibitive. A single bi-ski runs upwards of $5,000 and training and expenses can make moving to the "next level" of athletic performance an insurmountable barrier for many athletes with disabilities. Funding provided by The Unrecables helps make it possible for more disabled people to gain access to this equipment and to the self-esteem that comes from participation in sports.
