President's Message

reetings CSSC Members:

This is the first President's message I've ever sent on the eve of a trip. I'll be in Italy until May 9, so I'm not going to be at our first meeting in May! Carolyn Phillips, our executive VP, will also miss our first meeting in May—So let's welcome our VP of Activities – Margaret Barnett - who will stand in for me to lead the meeting on May 1st. I know she will do a great job!

First up and most importantly, I want to thank our departing Board members: Greg Lanigan, Linda Norberg and Suzie Bornhauser. They did a great job in their positions respectively as Secretary, VP-Membership and VP of Social Activities. I also want to welcome Sharon Schnell back on the board as Secretary, Sandy Palmer as VP of Social Activities and Ramona Rowan as our new VP of Membership. I am sure they will be welcome additions to our Board.

I also want to congratulate Richard Murray and Shirley Thorne for being elected as 2019-20 Man and Woman of the Year. Both are great skiers and active members of our club. They will represent our club well as representatives to LA Council of Ski Clubs and be honored at our annual Holiday Gala in December.

Well, there are over 40 of us headed in Italy. And we have another fantastic trip headed to the Galapagos Island and Peru the week we get back. Hey, if you haven't traveled with us, look at what will be offered in 2020 and sign up early. I was fortunate to be one of the last ones to get on our trip to Italy, so don't wait too long to sign up for our next trips to Yosemite in June, Memphis/Nashville in September or the Cruise in October. Life is short—Let's live it!

We also have our annual picnic coming up on May 18th, Lake Cachuma in early June, a trip to the gardens of Lotusland outside Montecito in late June and a Toga Party in July.

Enjoy this Newsletter and thank you for re-electing me once again as your President. Thank you for your Support!

Jim Robertson, il Presidente

We enjoyed warm sunshine, gorgeous ocean views, cool breezes, and colorful blooming flowers nestled among the verdant slopes of Point Mugu State Park. We hiked 4.4 miles up 58 floors on switchbacks overlooking the Pacific and the Channel Islands to a viewpoint where we relaxed and enjoyed the beauty of our surroundings. After a quick descent, we headed to Camarillo where enjoyed a long lunch with good friends, delicious Vietnamese food, and lots of cold beer. A perfect day for our "Attitude" hike!
